Introducing The Forest High School...

Challenging the expectation of all, in the pursuit of an outstanding learning experience for all

Still considering secondary school options?

Come to The Forest High School's forthcoming Open Events.

These informal open events will provide information on the school's high standards of teaching and learning, innovative curriculum and support for all learners.

If you have already decided to send your child to The Forest High School we would love to meet you – or if you are not sure, come and see the range of additional opportunities for your child, including the opportunity to take part in the Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

In partnership to inspire future success
